

nmfilmmakersshowcase

audience favorites

August 2007

FEATURE DOC

AMERICAN METH

dir. Justin Hunt, Farmington A blue-collar tale of tragedy and triumph that looks not only at meth in America, but in an American Family. Narrated by Val Kilmer. TRT 84 MIN

SHORT FILMS

A PIECE OF PIE

dir. Janet Davidson, Santa Fe A flat tire on a lonely NM road pits two strangers together over a piece of pie. From a script by Governor's Cup winners Scott and Paula Merrow of Albuquerque. TRT 18 MIN

BAPTISM OF FIRE

dir. Justin Golightly, Albuquerque A documentary on British soldiers experiences during World War I, visualized through reenactment. Shot completely on a green screen in the director's garage. TRT 11 MIN

DISCREPANCIES

dir. J. Anthony Cangialosi, Albuquerque - Following events from the previous night, Dan and Tom confront the demise of their friendship in order to sort out the startling discrepancies of an evening consumed by money, lies, violence, and a kidnapping. TRT 18 MIN Some hard language and violent content.

LONG HAUL

dir. Erin Hudson, Albuquerque Barreling along freeways from behind the wheel of their big rigs, three women truck drivers share their humor, insight and experience of driving 18-wheelers for a living. TRT 22 MIN

SATURDAY NIGHT SPECIAL

dir. Justin Evans, Albuquerque Eddie understands the mean streets of Spokane's lower south hill. That's why he quit the life. But tonight, his only choices are the hard ones. TRT 14 MIN Some hard language and violent content.

nmfilmmakers

nmfilm.com