

New Mexico State Film Office Online Directory Application Policy

The New Mexico Film Office's online crew & resource directory is a listing of New Mexican film industry vendors and crew members.

Applications must meet the following criteria:

1. Applicant must be a New Mexico primary resident to apply for a crew listing.
2. Vendors listing their company must be registered with the New Mexico State Tax & Revenue Department and provide their NM tax id (CRS).
3. All applicants must submit their New Mexican address per each listing.
4. At least one New Mexican contact number is required per listing.
5. Only in-state checks or money orders will be accepted as payment.
6. If applicant submits only film union or guild affiliations that are not based in New Mexico, additional information may be required prior to accepting listing application.
7. Applicants may list a maximum of three listings.

The listings contained in the 2007- 2008 New Mexico Film Directory both online and in the printed publication are paid advertising. Neither the State of New Mexico nor the New Mexico Film Office warrants the truth or accuracy of any of the statements contained in the online listings or in the sections of paid advertising in the publication. The New Mexico Film Office reserves the right to remove listings from this site for non-payment and in the event a listing contains false or misleading information. The New Mexico Film Office also reserves the right to remove listings that are not immediately corrected by the listing entity upon written notice from the NM Film Office.
